The ideal candidate will have a strong clinical background in HIV and TB care, experience in telemedicine, and excellent communication skills.

Primary Responsibilities

- Provide teleconsultation services for HIV and TB clients, including counseling, ART initiation support, and adherence follow-up.
- Work collaboratively with the field team and technical expert to facilitate client referrals, ensuring timely initiation of ART and TB treatment in remote areas.
- Regularly monitor and ensure the effective operation of the five TB pharmacies in Yangon, maintaining adherence to treatment protocols and service standards.
- Offer clinical guidance and problem-solving support to field staff managing HIV and TB cases.

Case Management and Referral Coordination

- Provide high-quality care to patients attending the HIV/STI clinics, including STI screening, treatment, HIV testing, and counseling
- Ensuring comprehensive case management for HIV and TB clients from initial consultation to ongoing treatment adherence by working with the field team.
- Coordinate with the field team to address any barriers to successful treatment outcomes, particularly for clients in hard-to-reach locations.
- Implement strategies to re-engage clients who have been lost to follow-up, ensuring continuity of care.

Collaboration and Coordination

- Liaise with ART and TB focal points in the field and healthcare team to ensure seamless client care coordination.
- Actively participate in multidisciplinary meetings, contributing to treatment strategies and care plans for HIV and TB clients.

Supervision and Support

- Monitor and supervise teleconsultation processes, ensuring effective remote care management and support for field team members.
- Provide training and support to field team members in remote areas as needed, ensuring quality care standards are upheld.
- Provide supervision to the field team to ensure the effective facilitation of patient cases.

Data Management

- Maintain accurate and confidential patient records for teleconsultation cases, ensuring data integrity and compliance with reporting standards.
- Collect and submit monthly data reports to the HQ M&E team, contributing to ongoing monitoring and evaluation of teleconsultation impact.

Qualifications:

- Medical doctor with three years of clinical experience in HIV/TB care.
- Previous experience in HIV/TB clinic settings in remote areas with limited resources setting is preferred.
- Knowledge of antiretroviral therapy, TB, HIV/STI testing, and treatment protocols.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Computer Literacy with Microsoft Package.
- Compassionate and nonjudgmental approach to patient care.
- Ability to work effectively in a team and collaborate with healthcare professionals.
- Commitment to maintaining patient confidentiality and upholding ethical standards.
